

A MILLION DOLLAR FIRE

Hundreds of Families Made Homeless at Boston.

AN INCENDIARY'S AWFUL WORK

Two Thousand People Robbed of Their Homes by a Terrible and Costly Conflagration. The Fire Covered a Space of Twenty Acres. Relief for the Poor—Many Without Food.

Boston, May 15.—By the torch of an incendiary tonight over a million dollars' worth of property is in ashes, over five hundred families of the middle and poorer classes, consisting of over 2,000 people, are homeless and many of them had time to save a portion of their household furniture. Tonight sleeping in the open air. Women with their arms and little children huddled close together, have only the sky for a roof and the few mattresses saved from the burned tenements for a bed and no prospect of a breakfast in the morning.

After 6 o'clock the time for the workhops and business places to close, many pathetic scenes were witnessed—fathers returning to find their homes burned to the ground and no trace of their wives or little ones. Children, who had been at work as cash boys and girls in the big dry goods and other stores, barred out from their homes where they resided and could find no traces of their parents.

The fire covered a space of twenty acres, and as far as can be learned only six persons have been injured and none fatally. The fire started in the Boston League ball park in a pile of lumber which was lying under the grandstand bleachers, directly back of first base. In a moment it had leaped up to the seats and fanned by a brisk breeze, swept toward the grandstand. So rapidly did the flames spread that before the occupants of the grand stand realized it the fire was upon them and they were forced to flee.

It was several minutes before the firemen were at work. The left-field bleachers were next ignited. Meanwhile the sparks had fallen upon the houses on Berlin street, and the flames leaped up to the right and left until the entire square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and extending into the city streets, was a mass of burning buildings.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky. The firemen were at work, but the fire was too large for them to control. The fire spread rapidly toward the city streets, and in a few minutes it had reached the corner of the square between the ball grounds and Tremont street, and the flames were leaping up to the sky.

TURNED ON HIS BEST FRIEND.

Eugene Brady, Brother of Mother in a Fit of Insanity.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 15.—A shocking tragedy occurred here late this afternoon, when Eugene Brady, a young roofer, residing on Vine street, lost his reason and stabbed his mother to death with two butcher knives.

He then sprang from a second-story window, but escaped injury. It required the combined efforts of six policemen to shake him out of his trance into the patrol wagon. Mrs. Brady only lived half an hour after the tragedy. Another woman named Kelly, who was also stabbed by the maniac, is in a critical condition, and a man named Rice, who was also stabbed by him, is in a critical condition, and a man named Rice, who was also stabbed by him, is in a critical condition.

Another Catholic Synod Probable.

LONDON, May 15.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Rome says: The Pope has resolved to put an end to all differences existing between him, the papal delegate to the United States, and the reactionary American bishops. The Pope has resolved to put an end to all differences existing between him, the papal delegate to the United States, and the reactionary American bishops.

Just a Poor, Inoffensive Negro. GATE CITY, Va., May 15.—Last night a band of eleven masked men, turning themselves regulars, started out ostensibly for the purpose of playing a game of cards. They were in the house of Samuel Woods, an inoffensive colored man, they were refused admission. The men, who were armed with Winchester rifles and revolvers, forced their way into the house of Samuel Woods, an inoffensive colored man, they were refused admission.

Desperate Duel with Burglars. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 15.—Adolph Griffith, Tom Whitson and Elijah McPherson, hid themselves in J. M. May's store last night to catch negro burglars whom they had heard plotting to burn and rob. The negroes came, broke open the store and were ordered to surrender. The negroes refused, and a desperate duel followed.

Grand Army Expectations. PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 15.—Estimating with the posts already heard from as a basis, it is considered certain that over 50,000 veterans of the G. A. R. will be present at the annual convention of the G. A. R. at Pittsburgh, Pa., May 15-17.

To Test Election Returns. CHARLESTON, S. C., May 15.—The most important action of the Republican executive committee was the appointment of a committee to consider and test the election and registration laws of the state. The committee consists of Messrs. Webster, Jordan, and Dickinson.

Endicott Will Entertain Cleveland. DAVENPORT, Mass., May 15.—Ex-Secretary of War Endicott expects to entertain President Cleveland and family for two months this summer at the Peabody farm at Davenport, Conn.

Telegraphic Privileges. ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Louis says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Louis have been extended to include the city of St. Louis.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 15.—An application for the extension of the telegraphic privileges of the city of Philadelphia has been granted by the telegraphic commission.

Chicago, Ill., May 15.—A dispatch from Chicago says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of Chicago have been extended to include the city of Chicago.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Paul says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Paul have been extended to include the city of St. Paul.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Louis says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Louis have been extended to include the city of St. Louis.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Paul says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Paul have been extended to include the city of St. Paul.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Louis says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Louis have been extended to include the city of St. Louis.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Paul says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Paul have been extended to include the city of St. Paul.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Louis says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Louis have been extended to include the city of St. Louis.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Paul says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Paul have been extended to include the city of St. Paul.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Louis says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Louis have been extended to include the city of St. Louis.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Paul says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Paul have been extended to include the city of St. Paul.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Louis says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Louis have been extended to include the city of St. Louis.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Paul says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Paul have been extended to include the city of St. Paul.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Louis says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Louis have been extended to include the city of St. Louis.

St. Paul, Minn., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Paul says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Paul have been extended to include the city of St. Paul.

St. Louis, Mo., May 15.—A dispatch from St. Louis says that the telegraphic privileges of the city of St. Louis have been extended to include the city of St. Louis.

GREAT DAY AT GRAVESIDE

Taral Rides Dr. Rice Safely Home in the Big Race.

CHEERED BY MANY THOUSANDS

One of the Most Exciting Days in the History of Racing—An Immense, Enthusiastic but Nervous Crowd Saw the Sensational and Unexpected Results.

New York, May 15.—A better day could not have been desired for the opening of the racing season and the running of the great Brooklyn handicap, valued at $25,000, at the Graveside track today. The sun rose with a clear sky, belying the promise of the night before, and the air was as clear as a bell and a warm breeze swept across the track.

At 2 o'clock there were at least 30,000 people inside the gates and long lines extending from the box-offices, waiting for the slow ticket-takers to take their money. There was a little excitement at that time, for Dr. Rice made his first move, an officer appearing in the club house with a summons to appear before Justice Walsh in Brooklyn tomorrow in answer to a charge of conducting a lottery. Arrests had been expected, but none were made up to that time.

At that time the horses named for the first race were in the paddock, and the 112 bookmakers—three more than the best on record—began chinking up the odds. On the lawn, when the race was called, there was a sea of heads, their owners packed so closely together that it looked like a solid mass, and they were struggling to get out of the ring, where they could see a small part of the race. It was estimated then by good judges that at least 40,000 people were present, and many were returning home, unable to get anywhere near the track.

It was the biggest day in the history of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, and must have been an immense money-getter, for nearly all paid for admission, the free passes of former years having been sold at a high price. The place was crowded with ladies, not one of whom got in without paying.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

At 2 o'clock the third race was run, and again made his first move. This time he was in greater force, for Sheriff Butler, with a host of deputies, came on with warrants to arrest the bookmakers. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued. The bookmakers, however, refused to be taken, and the race was continued.

LET OUT THE MALCONTENTS

Miners Convention at Cleveland Wrangles Over Admission of Delegates.

BEGAN IN A TANGLE OF TALK

Dempster Claims That the Call Was Issued to All Miners and Virtually Gave All Representation—McBride Opposes Him and Gets Ten Operators Excluded.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 15.—The situation among the miners and operators just before the conference met today was fully as complicated as at any time since the strike began. A convention was made. Indeed, the nearer the hour for the opening of the meeting approached, the greater the complications appeared. One prominent Pennsylvania operator said:

"They have already brought up subjects sufficient to keep the conference in session a month." The corridors at the Weddell House were thronged with coal operators during the entire day until the conference was called to order. Numerous causes and discussions were held, while the air was filled with rumors of every conceivable kind. The Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

When Governor Stone, who was made permanent chairman, arose to make his speech about the big conference between the miners and the operators, he was met by a storm of opposition. He declared that the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority, and the Pennsylvania operators were in the majority.

YESTERDAY IN COXEYLAND.

The General Gets a Letter Telling Him a Congressional Nomination.

MILLER SUSTAINS THE JURY

Ex-District Attorney Lipscomb Makes a Strong Argument for the Trial—Inflammatory Speech to the Jury Declared Inflammatory—Lafayette to Apply for a Writ.

The trio of supreme court leaders, Jacob S. Coxey, Marshall Call Brown, and Charles Columbus Jones, met with other reformers in the police court yesterday. After four hours, spent in arguments on the motion for a new trial, Judge Miller overruled the motion and notified the defendants to appear Thursday for sentence.

Andrew A. Lipscomb, ex-Assistant District Attorney, made the principal argument. The first point raised was the alleged unconstitutionality of the act under which the arrests were made. Mr. Lipscomb declared it an abridgment of the right to peaceably assemble and petition the government. His next point was that the new information filed against the men was unsupported by affidavit. The first information was so supported, but the second, lacking a legal requirement, in every place where criminal law prevailed the information must be supported on the oath of the prosecutor, prosecutive without a prosecuting attorney. The remarks of District Attorney Blirney to the jury were next considered.

The speech of the District Attorney, declared Mr. Lipscomb, was inflammatory, exciting, and prejudicial. It was intended to arouse, and successfully, too, the prejudice of the jury, divert their attention from the true facts, and induce them against the defendants. It caused them to read a biased and unjust verdict against the defendants. He said that the jury had no right to say that the defendants could be punished for a crime more than that for which they were charged. He referred to matters not in evidence, that transpired before the jury was impaneled.

This procedure, a long discussion, in which the court, the prosecution, and the counsel for the defense took part. In rendering his opinion Judge Miller held that the point of misdemeanor of the District Attorney was without proof. "No improper influence," said the court, "was brought to bear. Coxey certainly had no place; the case was tried impartially, and the verdict is the result of honest opinions. The jury consisted of neither fools, hypocrites, nor cowards, but representative business men. I can see why the verdict was reached, and the motion is therefore overruled."

Mr. Pence immediately reserved his objections, and gave notice that he would apply to the District Judge for a writ of certiorari to restrain the police court from exercising jurisdiction in the premises. The writ will be granted, said the court, if the marshal restrained from obeying the order of the lower court.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

The defendants were notified to appear in court Thursday morning to receive sentence.

MILLER SUSTAINS THE JURY

Ex-District Attorney Lipscomb Makes a Strong Argument for the Trial—Inflammatory Speech to the Jury Declared Inflammatory—Lafayette to Apply for a Writ.

TO BE SENTENCED TO-MORROW

Ex-District Attorney Lipscomb Makes a Strong Argument for the Trial—Inflammatory Speech to the Jury Declared Inflammatory—Lafayette to Apply for a Writ.

Ex-District Attorney Lipscomb Makes a Strong Argument for the Trial—Inflammatory Speech to the Jury Declared Inflammatory—Lafayette to Apply for a Writ.

Ex-District Attorney Lipscomb Makes a Strong Argument for the Trial—Inflammatory Speech to the Jury Declared Inflammatory—Lafayette to Apply for a Writ.

Ex-District Attorney Lipscomb Makes a Strong Argument for the Trial